DIY Halloween Kids' Craft: Glittered Trick-or-Treat Bags

Materials Needed:

- plain canvas tote bags
- water-based craft paint (black, green and purple)
- glitter (black, green and purple)
- pen/pencil
- disposable paintbrushes
- scissors
- paper or drop cloth to protect table's surface
- Bat, Pumpkins, Spider, Witch, or Ghost Template

Paint and Glitter Tote

Using a small paintbrush, outline the design then fill it in with paint. While paint is still wet, pour glitter over the painted design. Let the glitter sit for 5-10 minutes while the paint dries, then pour off excess glitter. Tip: Pour glitter onto a sheet of paper you can roll into a funnel then pour unused glitter back into its container for future projects.

Cut Out and Trace Pattern

Download and print the three Halloween designs attached above (Image 1). Using scissors, cut carefully around your chosen design then lay it on the tote bag and trace around pattern with a pen or pencil (Image 2).

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, an annual campaign to raise awareness of breast cancer risks, the value of screening and early detection, and treatment options available to women and men who are diagnosed with one of the many forms of breast cancer. More than 249,000 people in the United States are diagnosed with invasive breast cancer every year, and nearly 41,000 die from the disease.

Over the years, a loop of pink ribbon has come to symbolize breast cancer awareness, and today the image of a pink ribbon can be found emblazoned on thousands of products, from apparel to dishware to office supplies. But there's more to awareness than just wearing pink.
